6. Insights

1. Laptop is the top product. It earns ₹3,889,210.00 (31.5% of revenue) from 24 orders. Its lead comes from volume: customers buy 5.7 units per order, the highest of any product, not from a higher price (average price ₹27,651.50).

2. Tablet gets the most orders (26) but ranks #2 by revenue, so order count alone does not show which product earns the most.

3. Monitor is the weakest product at 10.9% of revenue. It is the best candidate for a promotion or bundle offer.

4. North is the strongest region (32.2%) and West is the weakest (17.2%). The gap is ₹1,859,713.00.

5. 2024-03 was the best month with ₹4,485,006.00.

6. 2024-04 looks like a drop but is incomplete. Data covers only 9 days of that month. Its average order value (₹122,607.56) is the fairer figure to compare.

7. Order values vary a lot. The largest order is about 57x the smallest, and the average (₹123,650.48) is above the median (₹97,955.50), so a few big orders pull the average up.

7. Recommendations

- Promote Monitor with bundles or discounts.
- Study what works in North and test it in West.
- Track order value as well as order count when judging products.
- Collect a full month of data before comparing the latest month.
